9th February 2017

Dear Parent / Carer,

Kepier is hosting its annual Literature Festival between Monday 27th February and Friday 3rd March 2016. The festival is an important part of the school's academic calendar and part of its continuous drive to improve every child's reading ability.

Each year the Literature Festival follows a theme and this year we are celebrating 'Literature which is Out of this World'. To celebrate World Book Day on Thursday 2nd March we are holding a fancy dress event. There is no cost for this event and it is only for Year 7; they will be allowed to wear their costumes all day and there will be a competition for the best costume.

The theme of the fancy dress is to come as something out of this world, it could be a superhero or villain from a novel or comic book, it could be something from fantasy or fairy tale, or something related to space and aliens.

All costumes should be appropriate for school and the current weather. Also, sensible school footwear should still be worn. This is not a compulsory event and if your child does not wish to take part, they should wear their normal school uniform.

Kind regards,

Julie Hall
Leader of Whole School Literacy
